SILVER FOX TRIUMPHS

Victorious in Paumonok Handicap, Jamaica's Opening Attraction.

Disqualification of Uncle Hood in Suffolk Stakes Gives Race to Golden Pennant.

JAMAICA, N. Y., April 28.—Silver Fox, the high priced son of Grey Fox II., and Mary Queen of Scots, that races for Harry F. Sinclair's Rancocas Stable began the metropolitan season well when he was winner of the Paumonok Handicap at Jamaica today. It was a three-quarters dash and worth $6,900 to the winner. Silver Fox ran the three-quarters in 1:12 and was top weight, carrying 124 pounds. He was ably ridden by Laverne Fator.

Bud Fisher's Cartoonist was the one to finish well lapped on the four-year-old and a length and a half further away came the Greentree Stable's Navigator.

It was the opening of the New York racing season and never was there such a generous attendance at any opening. Long before the horses were called to the post for the opening race the stands and lawns were crowded and it was one of the most representative gatherings that ever graced an opening of the racing season. The weather had a winter chill that did not make the track the most comfortable place in the world, but the sport throughout the day was excellent.

DOUBLE FOR H. P. WHITNEY.

Unfortunately the stewards found it necessary to disqualify a horse that finished first when Uncle Hood, after finishing in front was set back for having crossed in front his opponents at the start. This moved H. P. Whitney's Golden Pennant into the winning column and it completed a double for the popular silks, for the opening race had been taken down by Color Sergeant. But it was Noah in the Paumonok that was looked upon as the surest of the Whitney candidates of the day and he failed utterly.

Conde from the Oakridge Stable played an important part in the defeat of Noah in the Paumonok and consequently an important part in the victory of Silver Fox. Conde had speed enough to go along with Noah and the son of Peter Pan never did relish that sort of contest. Sande kept Conde right at Noah and the pace was such that McAtee could not get on with his mount even had he been able.

This racing along took much out of both of the leaders and Fator cleverly moved his way up on the outside with Silver Fox until three-eighths from home it was apparent that he would be the winner. Navigator was also saving ground and going well next the inner rail and old Cartoonist was racing strongly.

NOAH BADLY BEATEN.

Conde was through when the stretch was reached, but he had done the damage to Noah and as he dropped back Noah was ready to drop back himself. Then Fator called on the gray and he came along gamely under the urging. Noah tired after an eighth out, but Cartoonist was not through by any means and Navigator was still going along strongly. Fator was wide awake in that run home and at the end Silver Fox had half a length to spare, while Cartoonist had beaten Navigator by a length and a half for second place, while Zuker, after being last in the early stages, outfinished Noah to land in fourth place.

There was a disqualification came out of the running of the five-eighths of the Suffolk Claiming Stakes for two-year-olds and when Mrs. J. Sciaccaluga's Uncle Hood was displaced after nosing out Golden Pennant, it completed a double for the Whitney silks and for "Pony" McAtee. The disqualification moved William Keating's Colored Gal into second place and gave third place to William Daniel's imported colt, Antonio.

Uncle Hood had been guilty of crossing his field at the start and he interfered with the others considerably while Golden Pennant, next to him at the post, suffered the most.

Golden Pennant was plainly best and, but for the interference he suffered at the start, he would undoubtedly have been the winner. He was knocked off his stride and forced to close a big gap, but at the end was just a nod short of victory.

Uncle Hood was rushed into the lead by Carter and, showing an excellent turn of speed, he was showing the way into the stretch. McAtee had to drive Golden Pennant most of the way after his misfortune at the start, and the son of Pennant responded with rare gameness. At the head of the stretch he had found his way into second place, but he was still two lengths back of Uncle Hood. He continued to close under a long drive, but was just a stride too late.

Let's Go and Durie M. both raced forwardly to the stretch, where they weakened, while Antonio was running over horses at the end.

The sport opened with a five and a half furlong condition race that brought together

CANTER DEFEATED BY A NOSE

Runs Remarkable Race Though Beaten on First Appearance of Year

Finishes Second to Rock Man in Chesapeake Stakes Separated by Inches --- Sarazen Disgraced in Larchmont Handicap

HAVRE DE GRACE, Md., April 28.—General manager Edward Burke furnished Havre de Grace patrons a splendid program for the closing day's sport of the spring meeting, the $10,000 added Chesapeake Stakes at a mile and a sixteenth, fashioned to bring out some of the Preakness and Derby colts, proved one of the best contests run at the meeting.

The Sagamore Stable furnished the winner in Rock Man, which made all of the pace, and in a rousing finish, beat Canter by a nose. Besides this pair Display, another prominent candidate for the big three-year-old stakes, went to the post. It was Display and Canter's first appearance of the year, and speculation on the event was divided between this pair, and they were about equal choices.

Display acted quite unruly at the post and his showing was none too impressive. Canter, on the other hand, ran a remarkable race. While at the post, Son Ami let fly his heels and landed on Canter's thigh, inflicting an ugly looking gash. After an eight minute delay they were finally sent away to a good start. Rock Man was rushed to the front, but before the turn into the back stretch was reached, Canter was on even terms with him, and the pair raced like a team the entire distance. Inside the eighth post Rock Man increased his advantage a bit, but at the end Canter came again and was gradually wearing the winner down. He just failed to make it and was beaten by a nose. The winner's portion of the stake was $8,000.

SARAZEN DISAPPOINTMENT.

As an additional attraction, the club provided the Larchmont Handicap, a dash of three-quarters, which brought a field of six to the post. Included among them was Sarazen, which ruled an odds-on favorite and was heavily backed by the public. When it came to the running he was never a factor, following along in last place but one for the entire way. The winner was Sun Pal, which beat Postillion by a couple of lengths. Callahan avoided the early pace with Sun Pal and delayed making his rush until straightened out in the home stretch, then got up in the last sixteenth to win going away. Postillion was a nose in front of Tamarind and then came Senator Norris. The Canadian colt ran a good race. He had a lot taken out of him in the early stages, racing Senator Norris into defeat.

Max Hirsch saddled the winner of the first race when he sent the Theo. Cok colt Houston to the post for E. M. Beyers. Houston was ridden by F. Weiner, began fast from the barrier and before they had gone a quarter he had a commanding leading over Fair Star. In the stretch run the latter made a challenge but when it came to a drive he tired. When he retired Coltilliti brought Gold Coin up and at the finish this colt was gaining on the leader at every stride. As it was he was beaten out a scant half length. Houston is a rapid beginner and speedy but runs like a colt that does not fancy a route. He ran the four and a half furlongs in :54⅕, the fastest time of the meeting for the distance.

BIG, UNRULY FIELD

The second race furnished a wild scramble. The field was a cumbersome one, fifteen facing the starter. There was a six minute delay at the post and when the start came they left in a bunch. Donges and Barrow were quickest to begin and drew away from their rivals. This pair rated head and head into the stretch. Barrow was on the outside of Donges and kept repeatedly bumping the latter. But for this Donges might have won. As it was the best he could do was to finish second to Scorcher which came from behind

ARRIVALS AT FAIRMOUNT

Over 150 Horses Now on Grounds After Consignment From Tijuana Reaches Track.

COLLINSVILLE, Ill., April 28.—With the first arrivals from the Tijuana track registering this week, there are now over 150 horses stabled at Fairmount Park, according to C. Bruce Head, general manager of Fairmount Jockey Club. The shipment from the far western course included H. D. Brown's Brown Shasta Farm's stable of fifteen horses, Mrs. G. H. Abbot's stable of four, and C. Irby's stable of six.

Others whose stables of horses have arrived at Fairmount Park recently, include the Pueblo Stables with seventeen horses, August A. Busch, Jr., with four; Nugent Bros., with eight; W. Phillips, with five; A. P. Foley, with five; Foley & Raner, with four; G. L. Strang, with three; C. Torell, with two; Charles Keerner, with ten; J. L. Lurding, with eight; A. L. Kirby, six; McEuan stables, five; George Peterson, seven; E. E. Major, three; E. Faulk, two; T. J. Carroll, four; and C. Capora, three.

From advices furnished the management by owners, several other stables are expected this week and arrangements are being made to care for a steady stream of stables to whom stable room has been assigned from now on until the opening of the spring meeting, May 29. The Fairmount Park track is now in good condition and will be so maintained, Mr. Head said.

QUEBEC DERBY VALUE

HACRE DE GRACE, Md., April 28.—At the conclusion of the meeting Joseph McLennan will get busy on the condition book of the Thorncliffe meeting and on the stakes to be offered at Dorval. The Dorval people will increase the added money to the Quebec Derby this year, with the idea of making that event attractive to the eastern owners who may be at Saratoga. The trip from The Spa to Montreal means only a few hours and it is expected that the Derby will bring together a field of the best three-year-olds that have gone to the post at any Canadian track in recent years.

WILL NOT START IN DIXIE

BALTIMORE, Md., April 28.—The Glen Riddle Farm has decided to go slow with American Flag and it is said that he will not be a starter in the Dixie. His first appearance with the colors will be deferred until the meeting at Belmont Park.

SHAPOFF SIGNS D. NEAL

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 28.—Mose Shapoff has secured first call on the apprentice D. Neal for the Kentucky season. The lad hails from California, and rode seventy-four winners at the recent Tijuana meeting.

PONS MOVING TO TORONTO

HAVRE DE GRACE, Md., April 28.—Owen Pons will ship his string from here to Toronto. He leaves in the same car with the R. A. Alexander horses which will be shipped on Tuesday.

WINS THE 2,000 GUINEAS

(SPECIAL CABLEGRAM)

NEWMARKET, England, April 28.—Lord Derby's Colorado, brown son of Phalaris and Canyon, beat Lord Wollavington's Coronach, the favorite, easily by five lengths in the Two Thousand Guineas here this afternoon. J. P. Hornung's Apple Sammy was third.

Nineteen horses started in the race. Colorado was quoted at 100 to 8, while Coronach was the choice at 5 to 4. Apple Sammy was at 10 to 1.

Weston, who rode the winner, has now scored in three of the English classics. He rode Sansovine to victory in the Epsom Derby in 1924 and Tranquil in the One Thousand Guineas of 1923. Colorado's victory was the first for the present Lord Derby in the Two Thousand Guineas.

The weather was dull and the going soft for the big race, but the attendance was large.

CAMDEN TO OVERALL

Carries the Whitney Colors to Front in Lexington Feature.

Eden Makes It a Double for Popular Silks—Extreme Cold Fails to Keep Crowd Away.

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 28.—Harry Payne Whitney's Overall, ridden by E. Benham, was returned victor in the Camden Handicap, carrying a net value of $3,300 and handsome silver plate, the latter donated by former senator Camden, in whose honor the race is named. Following the winner separated by short margins came Deeming and Chittagong in second and third places respectively. The trio were driving furiously for the last sixteenth with Overall holding on well, though tiring.

Overall had headed the six other starters when the half mile ground was reached and rounding into the stretch secured what seemingly assured him of an easy victory, but Deeming and Chittagong, both laggards in the early stages, began moving up with great determination through the stretch and in the last sixteenth there was a spectacular duel between the trio which culminated in Overall, still having half a length advantage over Deeming with Chittagong also going strongly. Rothermel finished in fourth place.

Changed track conditions was responsible for the absence from the race of Beau Butler, Token and Mary O. The success of Overall was not anticipated and he was one of the outsiders.

SILVER PLATE TO WINNER.

The handsome silver plate was presented to Ben Walters, acting for Mr. Whitney, by Mr. Jonett S. House, former secretary of the United States Treasury, who made the presentation for former senator Camden.

The Whitney colors were also successful in a preceeding race, his filly Eden figured in the double. Her victory, like Overall's was gained only after a stubborn duel, in this case with Seminola.

Extreme cold followed a heavy downpour, making conditions for the sport disagreeable, but not seriously affecting the attendance. Racing with most of the people in the blue grass region is almost a religion and it would take decidedly unpropitious weather to bring about a curtailment in attendance.

The Gardner-Applegate-Van Dusen combination continues its successes and a double went their way when Torchilla accounted for the sixth race that brought to the post some good youngsters. T. S. Jordan had previously won. Both were ridden by Legere.

Torchilla displayed high speed and a liking for the going, moving away from the others soon after the start and winning hard under restraint. Picadilly was closest in pursuit of him all the way and was an easing second, with Royal Julian bringing up in third place, under hard urging.

INDIANAPOLIS IN VAN.

Jockey J. McCoy, who piloted Bobby to victory in the opener, came back with another victory when he landed Indianapolis in the van of the seven others that started in the mile race. Indianapolis was favored and led from the start to beat Blue Torch, with Flying Spark in third place. Blue Torch made a game effort to overhaul the winner, but found the task too difficult. He was far out of it for the first half mile, but closed a big gap thereafter. Flying Spark kept Indianapolis close company in the early part, but began giving away in the stretch.

Harry Payne Whitney's stable earned its initial victory of the year on Kentucky tracks when Eden, a filly by Whisk Broom II. from Paradise II., won after a spirited finish with Seminola, Marion Elizabeth finishing third. Eden displayed a good flight of speed in the early stages, but began tiring slightly in the last sixteenth and it required her rider's best effort to enable her to land the purse. Seminola came with a rush in the last eighth and performed gamely.

The dozen that began the sport, over the Futurity Course, were an ordinary band. Bobby, an outsider, showing a liking for the going and a good brand of speed moved into the lead soon after the rise of the barrier and led the others for the entire way. Margate finished in second place and Reply, another outsider, finished in third place.

Herbert P. Gardner added another purse to his score when his T. S. Jordan accounted for the Lafayette Hotel Handicap, over the Futurity Course, in which four others engaged with him. Arcady finished in second place and Thundering third. T. S. Jordan was always the leader and showed a liking for the going. He maintained a fast pace throughout and saving ground additionally enabled him to always hold Arcady safe. Arcady was ridden wide unnecessarily so at the stretch turn and he began tiring slightly near the end, enabling Thundering to get in close proximity to him at the finish.

L. T. Cooper has secured a contract on the apprentice T. Lewis and will give the lad his first chance to ride at the Fairmount meeting.

Here and There on the Turf

Opening at Jamaica.
Training for Derby.
Hard Surfaced Tracks.
Why Horses Break Down.

With weather that certainly could have been improved upon, the opening of the New York racing season by the Metropolitan Jockey Club at Jamaica on Wednesday was a tremendous success. It was an immense throng that was out to view the racing and inclement weather meant little to such a crowd. All of this was predicted and was just as it should have been. Racing has a tremendous appeal that is constantly growing and it would have been strange indeed had the opening of a new racing season been other than successful.

The old fellows of the sport were all on hand while the newcomers to the turf were never more numerously represented. Some of them, doubtless, were on hand just for the holiday and to take part in the opening of the campaign, but they will surely fall for the appeal and they will just as surely become regular patrons of the turf.

All went smoothly for this opening and the racing was worthy of the occasion. The track and all its appointments had been ready long since and the day's entertainment rolled along like a piece of well oiled machinery.

It was a day for the renewing of friendships and on lawns and in the paddock those who raced through the cold months at one or other of the winter courses were kept busy telling of their experiences to those who spent the long idle months in the land of snows. It was just one big day and so readily does racing fit into a daily routine with many of the patrons that before the card was completed they had settled back comfortably for the long and interesting time that is to come.

In Kentucky some of the trainers with Kentucky Derby candidates are beginning to send their charges along for the full mile and a quarter and on Tuesday Recollection, one that has been in training steadily for some time, galloped the Derby route in 2:13, while Rhinock and Royal Omar were also permitted to work over the same distance.

All of this brings to mind that the Kentucky Derby is almost at hand. The other trainers will follow suit in stretching out the gallops and it may be expected from now until the actual running there will be a deal of interest in what is accomplished by each candidate. The speed workouts are well enough, but those that mean something are when eligibles are sent along for a mile and an eighth or the full Kentucky Derby distance of a mile and a quarter.

With the many beautiful race courses of which this country can boast there still remains the call for record breaking that absolutely prevents the building of a racing strip that is grateful to the galloping horse. In this desire to hang up records, the American thoroughbred is being sacrificed and what of the records that are made? They are no conclusive test of thoroughbred ability at its best. Mere speed means much, but in the meantime our horses have the reputation of not wearing well. We have earned the reputation of having bred horses that would not stand up and race year after year. They are, as a general proposition, through as four-year-olds, while all too many of them do not last that long, unless they are relegated to the claiming class that is all cluttered with unsound cripples that manage to get by when the company is slow enough.

The beginning of a racing year is the time to make a plea for race courses that are level and furnished with a cushion over which the horse may safely gallop without being in imminent danger of splitting a foot or bowing a tendon.

Galloping at great speed puts a tremendous strain on the feet and tendons of a horse at all times and that strain reaches the point of danger when tracks are scraped and rolled to flatten down the cushion. And it is imperative for the welfare of the horse that the tracks be absolutely level.

Track building and track care is an expert occupation that cannot be overestimated. There is something more than the mere building of a racing strip and then sending the harrows over it and having it sprinkled. To have a proper racing ground it should be the only care of a man who knows. There is a different sort of skill required for the designing of a grandstand or the landscape gardening that beautifies our race courses. A painter could do a good job dressing up a race course for the opening of a meeting, but he knows nothing of the right surface of a proper track.

It would be well if all the associations came together for the good of the American thoroughbred and see to it that race courses are sanely built for the protection of the feet and legs of the galloping horse.

It is an old story of how American horses break down quickly, but it is not particular to the breed, it is peculiar to the ground over which they are required to race.

This year there are practically no handicap horses that are more than four years old and, in fact, there are woefully few of them that have reached that age. That is shown in the entries for the Saratoga Cup, recently mentioned in this column. It was shown that with seventy-two nominations for that big race just thirty-six, or half of them, are three-year-olds. This is just one more indictment against the hard surfaces of the American race courses, or the lack of care in seeing that they have a uniform and a perfectly level surface.

There have been horsemen who have argued that a horse will break down more frequently on a soft than a fast track. But that argument is so patently senseless that it does not admit of discussion. Of course, it is possible to go to a ridiculous extreme in furnishing the track with a cushion, but it is unanswerable that the racing strip that has no resiliency is a bad track. When a horse has to gallop over a hard unyielding surface it stands to reason that the strain on tendons, shoulders and feet is greatly intensified.

Once in a while American produces such an iron limbed campaigner as Exterminator, which will race on year after year, but they are rare exceptions and galloping over the hard surfaces finally gets them all, just as it did this marvellous son of McGee.

For one horse that goes on to usefulness until he is six or even five years old, there are dozens of two-year-olds that are broken down before they have completed one year on the American turf, and it may all be chargeable to the tracks over which they are required to race.

There is no good reason in either blood lines or conformation why the American thoroughbred should not be just as long wearing as the thoroughbreds of any other country, but they never will be until there comes a drastic reform in track construction and track care. It is high time that less attention be paid to the breaking of records and more care taken to curb the breaking down of horses.

Dick Welles' Selections

At Lexington

HUON PINE—BOTHER—JUDGE PRYOR.

HUON PINE is an exceptionally good mud runner and appears to be the best of those entered in the first race. He has been turning in some fine moves since being quartered here and should be the one to score. BOTHER is partial to the heavy going also and figures to be the one to take down the place money. He scored in the mud at the Fair Grounds in one of his most recent races and accomplished it in fine style, beating some fast steppers. JUDGE PRYOR is reported to be in good condition at the present and may be the one to save the show. BOYS BELIEVE ME is not to be overlooked as this Croissant trick has been showing plenty of speed in his works.

TEE HEE—EMBRYO—SWEET MANDY.

TEE HEE graduated from the maiden ranks on the occassion of her last start at the Jefferson course over a slow track. She also ran a good third in the mud at the same course. She comes natural by this ability to negotiate the heavy footing for her daddy, Jack Hare Jr., was also a good mudder. EMBRYO performed fairly well in his two starts to date and dopes as the one to land in the place position. SWEET MANDY ran a game race in her only out to be home the winner by a nose over a sloppy track. This all happened at Tampa, and if that race was no fluke she would rate close up at the finish. MAJOE stands a chance of horning in at the finish.

WELCOME—MY DESTINY—BROWN BETTY.

The third race dopes to find the finish reading as follows; WELCOME, MY DESTINY and BROWN BETTY. The first mentioned has not been to the races since the last Latonia meeting, where he managed to pay his way. He has been turning in some nice workouts of late and a race to those moves would find him the winner. MY DESTINY is reported much improved over her New Orleans form and appears to be the one to take down the place money. BROWN BETTY does not find the heavy going a detriment and is the one most feared.

GABERDINE—PRINCE CHARLES—COPPERSHINE.

That GABERDINE is all set for a win today is evidenced by the fact that he turned in a half in :50 over a holding course Wednesday morning. If he were to run to that effort in his race today he would not have any trouble in copping off the winner's portion of the purse. PRINCE CHARLES was also given a prep and he pulled up at the end showing no ill effects. While races are not won in the morning trials, they give a true indication of a horse's ability. COPPERSHINE, a favorite in the stable of Polk Laffoon, started twice last year as a juvenile and he finished second in both of them. If he has not gone back any he should be the one to save the show money for his barn.

IDLE HOUR STOCK FARM STABLE ENTRY—PERCENTAGE—MIKE McLUKE.

The fifth, known as the Midway Purse, is another race framed for Derby eligibles and here Bradley starts two more of his color bearers for the big race in BAGENBAGGAGE, the Louisiana Derby winner, and BARCOLO. The former is also engaged in the Preakness, and his showing today will go a long ways toward deciding whether or not he will be sent after that rich stake. BARCOLO is well thought of by his owner and while he did not show anything sensational last year he has been working in a very pleasing manner for the master of Idle Hour. PERCENTAGE rates next highest to the Bradley pair but at that, many points away. MIKE McLUKE is reported in wonderful condition at the present and he may be good enough to save the show.

SINGING CRICKET—LADY PENNANT—AQUITANIA.

SINGING CRICKET won her race so easily last Monday that it is hard to conceive of anything in this race that is apt to beat her. She was off with the rise of the barrier and increasing her lead as the race progressed was home an easy winner. LADY PENNANT'S action at the post probably lost her last race for her for she acted badly before the tape was sprung and then tired slightly from her post antics after showing the way for most of the race. If breeding counts for anything, AQUITANIA is going to prove a mighty useful filly in a racing way. She is by Light Brigade, out of Atalanta. The latter was an exceptionally fast mare and if her daughter has inherited any of her speed she will bear watching.

THE LEOPARD—FOOLSCAP—BROKEN TOY.

The most likely winner of the concluding race on the card appears to be THE LEOPARD. This plater which races for John Lowe proved most consistent, while racing over the Jefferson Park course and if he races as kindly here will account for more than one purse. FOOLSCAP had a race Tuesday but his showing was a poor one, and he is capable of doing much better. With a heavy track in prospect, look for him to be much closer up at the finish. BROKEN TOY is in good form right now and if the going does not impede her speed too much think she can land in the three hole.

Went to post at 3:35. At post 6 minutes. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. MARTINGALE, off forwardly, raced into a good lead after passing the half mile post and kept increasing his advantage all through the last eighth. CAVE WOMAN ran well, but was on the outside of the leaders all the way and was tiring through the last sixteenth and driving hard to outfinish PANOLA. The latter began well and showed the most early speed, then raced gamely after being passed. LANOIL closed an immense gap. PADDLE was in a jam on the first turn.

Went to post at 4:11. At post 5 minutes. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. SUN PAL was outrun for the first half mile, but was taken to the outside when entering the home stretch and, finishing fast, got up in the last fifty yards to win going away. POSTILLION finished gamely and barely managed to get up in time to beat TAMARIND out. The latter was much used in racing SENATOR NORRIS into defeat and tired after taking the lead. SARAZEN began well, but ran one of his occasional bad races and was worked out an extra quarter after the finish. SENATOR NORRIS set and forced a fast pace and tired, but finished gamely.

WORLD WAR EQUINE HERO

Gallant Part Played by Bavard III. Bred by Late August Belmont.

How Son of Ethelbert—Bivouac Was Ridden as a Charger at Battle of Marne—Now in French Government Stud.

NEW YORK, N. Y., April 28.—The thoroughbred horse Bavard III., now a member of the French Governmental Stud, and sire of Berneuil II., winner of the recent Prix du Casino Municipal Steeplechase at Cannes was one of the equine heroes of the World War.

The gallant part played by Bavard III., whose sire and dam were both foaled in this country, is told by Hon. Perry Belmont, who is spending the winter in Washington. Mr. Belmont got the news at first hand in Paris last autumn from Vicomte Guy de Dampierre, now a steward of the French Jockey Club, eleven years after the battle of the Marne, in which the son of Ethelbert was ridden by him as a charger.

Bavard III. was bred in France by the late Major August Belmont. His sire, Ethelbert, by Eothen—Maori, was owned by his brother Perry, while his dam, Bivouac, by Hastings, was a matron who traced to Bernice, by Stockwell, one of the imported mares that were the foundation of the Nursery Stud, when it was owned by the first August Belmont. Ethelbert was sent to France about 1909, along with drafts from various American studs, following the stoppage of racing in New York. He had been a great race horse, winning some of the best prizes and defeating Jean Bereaud in a sensational match race at Gravesend. His fame has endured through his children, notably Fitz Herbert, which was almost as good a race horse as his sire. One of Ethelbert's daughters, Quelle Chance, sold for $45,000 to Joseph E. Widener at the Belmont dispersal sale last May. She is the dam of Chance Play, the crack three-year-old by Fair Play, owned by the Log Cabin Stable.

FOALED IN 1910.

Bavard III. was foaled in 1910 and during 1913 and 1914 won 101,302 francs in the Belmont colors, his last race being on July 28 when he ran third at Chantilly in the Prix de la Route. Racing ended in France on August 2 when there was a call to arms to repel the invading Germans. Shortly afterwards the vanguard of the enemy reached Chantilly. Most of those in charge of the thoroughbreds at this historic racing and training center became panic stricken and fled. A few Americans remained with their horses and one of them, a colored man in the employ of the late Hermanus B. Duryea, draped the Epsom Derby winner Durbar in an American flag and defied anybody to molest him.

Later when the thunder of the German cannons was heard the horses were removed from Chantilly. Some were conveyed in safety to the south of France, while others were abandoned or given to the French troops. The story of how Bavard III. became a charger is best told by Vicomte de Dampierre in a letter to Hon. Perry Belmont. The officer recites in detail the incidents leading up to the coming of Bavard III. into his hands and how he was unaware of the identity of the animal until some time after he had carried him through the battle of the Marne as intrepidly as any of the more seasoned war horses.

The following is the text of Vicomte de Dampierre's letter:

"On September 2, 1914, I received the command to form, with my Dragoons, the extreme rear-guard of the fifty-fifth division which was retreating on the Oise. On several occasions I was obliged to exchange some shots with the advance units of the enemy, particularly at Liancourt; thus when I reached the Oise the infantry had terminated its movement and those in command had ordered the bridges to be blown up. To the south of Liancourt a bridge of boats remained, which was beginning to burn. I hastened towards this place on horseback, accompanied by all my men save three, who were detained to perform a liaison service.

ABONDONED THEIR MOUNTS.

Of those three persons left behind, two rejoined me at Coye during the night. These two men had attempted to swim across the Oise with their horses. Not being able to accomplish this on account of the steepness of the river bank and being exposed to the firing of the Germans, they abandoned their mounts and threw themselves into a boat.

Some hours afterward, almost dead of fatigue, they were crossing Chantilly when a lad hailed them and offered them a superb chestnut horse, completely saddled. This horse, none other than Bavard III. (I learned this several weeks afterwards) was brought to me at Coye in the property of M. de Neuflize, where we stationed as an advance watching post, at 1 a. m.

I must here state that there was not a question of horses having been stolen by the French troops at Chantilly. The trainers were absent and the lads, frightened at the news that the Germans were approaching, offered the horses left in their charge to passing troops. This same night of the second-third September at half past three a. m. I set out to reconnoitre with the view to resuming contact with the Germans. My mare being exhausted, I ordered the horse which had been brought during the night to be saddled, and it was thus that I was mounted on Bavard III. during all the battle of the Marne.

He was a fine horse, very steady, and paid no attention to the mares. The noise of the firing did not frighten him. I had him regularly entered on the register; being a stallion, the horse could not be requisitioned for the rigiment. On Sunday, the sixth of September, I was on the point of abandoning Bavard III. I had to carry an urgent order to the colonel of the 246th, whose regiment was engaged at Chambry. Bavard III. refused to cross a small ditch which ran as far as the eye could see through a meadow battered by German balls. Neither slowly, nor at a trot, nor at a gallop; neither mounted nor led would Bavard III. cross this small obstacle. I was on the point of going to the colonel of the 246th on foot, when a mounted soldier appeared in the meadow; I attached myself to him and crossed the ditch without hindrance.

On the twelfth of September Bavard III. was one of the first to enter Soissons behind the retreating enemy, and then there was a long period of repose for him. The war in the trenches began, and my duties as staff officer to the Mainbray Infantry necessitated my going more often on foot than on horseback. The horse, however, remained at the military station of the brigade between Soissons and Crouy.

It was there that, in October 1914, I learned of the efforts made by Mr. Belmont to recover his horse. The idea came to me that the thoroughbred sought might very well be the one in my possession and I wrote at hazard to Arthur Carter. After an exchange of correspondence I was soon certain of the fact and through regular channels I requested permission from General de Lamaze, who was in command of my division, to return Bayard III. The horse not having been requisitioned, permission was easily granted and on November 9, 1914, I despatched Bavard III. to Villers-Cotterests.

I attach to this short statement, the letter which Arthur Carter sent to me, nearly eleven years ago, acknowledging the arrival of Bavard III., which he believed he had lost forever."

The French government naturally lost little time in securing Bavard III. for their stud. His fearlessness under fire is a characteristic of his type, but the superb disposition that made him so dependable in a conflict like that of the Marne, only a month after he had come from the race course, makes the story of Bavard III. of interest to every lover of the thoroughbred. Hon. Perry Belmont has reason to be proud of the stallion as a scion of Ethelbert, whose services he once placed at the disposal of the Societe d'Encouragement a l'Elevage du Cheval de Guerre, Francais (Society for the Encouragement of the Breeding of French War Horses). The same pride should be felt by everybody back of the Federal Remount movement in the United States, which now embraces practically every commonwealth in the Union.

Mr. Belmont has done the thoroughbred cause a distinct service in bringing the facts in connection with Bavard III. to light.

a remarkably fine band of three-year-olds. It resulted in a victory for H. P. Whitney's Color Sergeant when he led home the Rancocas Stable's Lachen, while Wm. Ziegler, Jr.'s, Espino came with a great rush at the end to outlast the Oak Ridge Stable's Cutitout for third. Color Sergeant, Lachen and Cutitout were all badly tired at the end and it is likely the race will do each one some good.

No time was lost at the barrier and as it was released Lachen was rushed out by Fator while Sande had Cutitout chasing after him and under slight restraint. Color Sergeant was off well enough but he could not keep step with this early pace.

Coming out of the back stretch Lachen increased his lead slightly and he was going along so smoothly that he looked all over a winner. Then Sande shook up Cutitout but the son of Theo. Cook would not respond and in the meantime McAtee was going around with Color Sergeant and he was making up ground gallantly.

Sande saved ground in the stretch with Cutitout and called on him again but it was of no avail and in the meantime Color Sergeant went on by and was close after the Hildreth colt. In the last sixteenth he was on by to win going away by a length and a half. Lachen was doing his level best and just lasted to beat Espino for the second place. The Ziegler colt came with a great rush in the short stretch and was going faster than either Color Sergeant or Lachen at the end. Cutitout was giving away considerable weight when he had to take up 122 pounds and it is natural to expect that this race will do him good. Espino created the impression that he will do better at seven-eighths or a mile while the performance of Color Sergeant was thoroughly satisfactory.

It was a goodly field of platers that went to the post in the second race and there came a real thrill when Thurber brought J. A. Harper's All in All along with a winning rush on the outside in the last sixteenth. She was up to score from J. Sciaccaluga's Julie and G. A. Marshall's Wildlane saved third from the Greentree Stable's Ferrash. Cassidy had some trouble obtaining a line-up to his liking, but the field was sent off in fairly good alignment. Julie at once went into the command and Wildlane chased after her, while Ferrash was showing the way to the others and All in All not far away and racing along on the outside. Voshell had broken sluggishly, but he at once began to make up ground and, while he had no chance to come through, his was a good race.

GRASS MAID A SURPRISE

Unexpectedly Takes New Southern Hotel Handicap, Feature at Beulah Park.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 28.—The Missouri Stable's Grass Maid furnished a surprise in annexing the New Southern Hotel Handicap, fifth and feature race on today's program at the Beulah Park course. Grass Maid was rushed into the lead soon after the start but was crowded back rounding the far turn then saved ground the remainder of the way and coming to the outside of Bosh on the turn for home gained a slight lead and outgamed the latter in the final strides to draw clear near the end although doing her best. Bosh finished resolutely and held Rockford safe for second place. The latter ran an even race and had a wide margin over the other starters, Bruneth and Rough and Ready.

Last night's rain changed the track to a heavy condition, but did not adversely affect the brand of sport, all of the seven races being closely contested and hard fought throughout. A falling off in the attendance resulted from the cold weather and uninviting conditions which prevailed.

W. R. Padgett scored his first win of the meeting when Pickens showed the way to his opponents throughout the running of the opening dash. The winner was never threatened until a few yards from the finish when Mandy challenged and forced Pickens to do his best to retain his advantage. Lady Goodhart was a distant third.

In the second race Roma proved best in a closely fought stretch duel and, coming from fourth place, got up in the last few yards to gain a close decision over Cloporte. The latter could not stall off Roma after taking the lead by a small margin entering the home stretch. Lamp Ward disposed of Love Pirate, the early pacemaker, in the final drive to earn third place.

Bessie Hope, finishing on the outside of Banker Brown in the stretch and under a hustling ride, just got up in the final stride to gain the decision by the narrowest of margins in the third race. Banker Brown had a comfortable margin over Royal George for second place.

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 28.—E. R. Bradley has announced that he fully intended having three starters in the Kentucky Derby with the possibility that there may be four. The almost certain starters are: Bubbling Over, Bagenbaggage and Boot to Boot. CARLARIS' FUTURE RACES

Will Be Seen in Action at Fairmount, Latonia, Chicago and on the Metropolitan Courses.

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 28.—W. T. Anderson, owner of Carlaris, was among today's visitors from Louisville. He confirmed that his colt would be an absentee from the Kentucky Derby, May 15. "I had high hopes until yesterday of his starting in the big fixture, but was forced to admit that it would be unwise and probably result in permanent injury to the colt if he were started. The wound is not serious at present and the colt is in superb condition otherwise, but the injury might become aggravated unless he is completely stopped in his training.

"I had planned ambitiously for Carlaris and it included starting in the Kentucky Derby and the other principal three-year-old fixtures culminating with a start in the Latonia Championship Stakes."

Carlaris will be pointed for his start in the Fairmount Park Derby. He will then engage in the Lationia Derby and the principal three-year-old stakes in Chicago, when they begin racing there. He will also give an eastern racing audience a chance to judge of his merits, for he will start in several stakes on the Metropolitan courses in which he is entered.

AKRON TRACK DEEP IN MUD

Difficult Course and Cold Weather Reflected in Considerably Decreased Attendance.

AKRON, Ohio, April 28.—Following the steady rain for the past twenty-four hours today's races here were run over a track fetlock deep in mud. The weather was real autumn-like and the attendance suffered as a result.

After a stirring struggle entering the stretch Quiet drew clear and retained a slight margin over the fast finishing Dusky Belle at the end of the opening dash. In a hard drive Jim Daisy outgamed the tiring Utah for third place. Runpreserve, the early leader, retired from contention on reaching the stretch.

Closing up courageously on the outside of the leaders entering the stretch Hopalong drew into the lead and earned the verdict by a small margin under a very confident looking ride by jockey Ralls in the second race.

Showing the way throughout Satana was never in serious trouble during the running of the third race. Dustproof after being a victim of poor racing luck in the early stages closed enough ground to beat Zero home for second place and was probably best.

Taking command after going half the distance, Little Clair then drew away into a long lead and made a show of her opponents in the fourth race. Jimson had no opposition for the second place. The tiring Cottager was third after racing prominently during the early stages.

$2,000 FOR SPORTS WINDOW

United Hunts Donates Ten Per Cent of Saturday's Receipts to Fund for Cathedral Bay.

NEW YORK, N. Y., April 28.—John McEntee Bowman, president of the United Hunts Racing Association, has announced that approximately $2,000 will be turned over to the Sports Bay Window fund for the Cathedral of St. John the Divine. This sum represents ten per cent of the receipts of Saturday's gate at the United Hunts. This meeting was one of the most successful ever held and attracted a record-breaking assemblage of representative social and racing people to Belmont Park Terminal.

The proposed Sports Bay Window for the cathedral has aroused widespread enthusiasm and the project is being pushed to completion by a committee on sports and games, of which Julian S. Myrick is chairman; Miles S. Charlock, secretary, and Frederick W. Rubien, treasurer. The membership of this committee represents every branch of amateur sport. As a member of the committee, John McEntee Bowman has co-operated in every way to make the suggested sports window a reality, and at a recent luncheon tendered by him to the United Hunts, announced that ten per cent of the first day's receipts of the spring meeting would be devoted to swelling the fund.

Bishop William T. Manning was invited to attend the opening day at Belmont Park Terminal, but, unfortunately, was prevented from attending as he has been ill with influenza. Through chairman Myrick of the sports and games committee, the bishop sent a message to president Bowman, expressing his appreciation of the invitation and his keen regret at not being able to be present.

President Bowman referred to the fact that the Cathedral Sports Bay Window is not an unheard-of departure by any means, but that it has notable precedents in several European countries where cathedral windows commemorate the sports and recreations of monarchs, nobility and commoners.

CANTER BEATEN BY A NOSE

with a rush in the stretch and won going away by a length. Scorcher had rather a rough passage. Beginning well, he immediately dropped back, but Marinelli kept at him and weaving his way through closed on the tiring leaders with a rush. There was a lot of crowding and interference in which Masquerado stumbled and went to his knees.

Martingale was making his first start since the winter meeting at the Jefferson course in New Orleans when he went to the post in the third race. Stott had the mount and Martingale showed something like the form he used to display when he was rated as one of the best of his age in training. Off well, he moved into an easy lead after passing the half mile post and had a five length lead over Cave Woman at the end. It was a furious drive back of the winner, the next six being in a compact bunch.

Canister ran a good race in the sixth when he beat St. John by a neck after a long hard stretch drive. St. Valentine was quickest to begin, but straightening out on the back stretch, Canister went to the front and remained there. He had to stall off determined opposition from St. John. The latter made his bid at the eighth post, where he looked to have Canister beaten, but in the final drive the latter proved the gamer. Balboa was never a factor, being a follower most of the way.

Van Patrick furnished a surprise when he beat the favorite Despair in the closing race. Despair made the pace to the stretch turn, where Van Patrick caught and passed him and at the end he had an advantage of little over a length.

Gray Gables was third. The winner was claimed by R. C. Jenkins for $2,000.
